

GENKI BOOKS

2017.2.1-4.30

(GENKIBOOKS will be renewed every three months.)

The University of Tokyo is committed to gender equality initiatives. The Libraries for Engineering and IST have established this section in Engineering building #2 as part of these initiatives.

The section is called GENKI BOOKS, which stands for "Gender Equality: No-nonsense Knowledge and Information."

GENKI BOOKS has been a part of the Komaba campus libraries since 2010.

Through cooperation with the National Women's Education Center, a variety of books, such as those listed below, have been compiled here.

- Books on women with backgrounds in scientific fields
- English books on gender in Japan
- Books on relations of women and the politics
- Books on geography and maps

All books are for reading and borrowing. Please feel free to browse.
